Lisa Hayman is a Director at Asia Education Foundation (AEF).

Lisa has a strong background in school education as a secondary school teacher, Innovations and Excellence Educator and Curriculum Manager for Victorian Department of Education.

In her role at AEF Lisa leads the development and delivery of professional learning programs nationally and internationally. She has a strong interest in how ICT can be used to take learning beyond the four walls of the classroom.

For more information about the Asia Education Foundation (AEF) visit: asiaeducation.edu.au.