

Webinar 20: Being and Becoming Global Citizens: Measuring Progress toward UN SDG 4.7

Rachel Parker, ACER Senior Research Fellow

Rachel Parker brings a range of experience and skills to her webinar on global citizenship education. For over a decade Rachel worked with governments and multinational organisations to implement educational reform and improvement programs in over 15 countries for clients such as the Australian Government, ADB, and the World Bank.

For the past ten years she has worked in education research developing frameworks, tools, and approaches to define, enact and measure global citizenship competencies. She has lectured, published, and presented on the topic nationally and internationally.
