ACSA CONFERENCE

“CURRICULUM IN CONTEXT”

FRIDAY 15TH AUGUST, 2025

2 LOCATIONS - SERVING BOTH THE
EAST AND WEST COAST

HOSTED BY:
THE UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA AND THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

2025

For the first time ever, we shall be holding an East and West coast conference simultaneously. We are incredibly excited!

We thank you for your patience and your support as we have endeavoured to put this all together.

For those who have already submitted abstracts, we shall be in touch to confirm if you still wish to submit them to the conference team, and we shall put a final call out in our socials this week.

We shall be holding the AGM at the conference.

As you will see, this is just a one-day conference, we have aimed to help keep costs reasonable and know that for many schools and institutions, having staff out for many days, puts increased workload and costs onto those schools. We hope these conferences will pack a punch! Our Garth Boomer address/Keynote will be live across both sites. With permission of those presenting we are also hoping to record sessions which will then be available for those who attended the conference on the opposite side of the country.

Our Curriculum Perspectives continues to be the #1 for outstanding educational research.

In our latest edition Lucinda McKnight opens our special issue on "Feminisms and Curriculum and Inquiry" by reminding readers about the long and changing relationship between feminisms and education, and offers a challenge to rearticulate, expand, update and reinvent the role feminisms play in curriculum inquiry, in conjunction with other powerful social justice agendas. Part history, part call to action, this is a cracking read for curriculum scholars both new and old!
